

GOD BLESS

THE

OLD SIXTH CORPS

Song and Chorus

Mus. by

THOS. P. RYDER.

BOSTON

Published by Oliver Ditson & Co. 27 Washington St.

Sole
A. G. Drake

A. G. Drake
A. G. Drake & Co.

Oliver
Ditson & Co.

Oliver
Ditson & Co.

Oliver
Ditson & Co.

GOD BLESS THE "OLD SIXTH CORPS"

THOS. P. RYDER.

3. There's many a brave-man ly-ing where he can bely length and toll; There's

1. God bless our no-bles ar-my! The hearts are strong and brave That have

2. In the thickest of the bat-tle, Where the cannon's fier-y breath Smites no, by a death-er-igh-ting For the same also lived on well; And the wil-ling come our stand-ard From trea-sure's grasp to save; But many a strong heart press-ing On to vic-tory or death! The

From the West - ern Prai - rie To At - lan - tic's rock - y shore, - - The fore, most in the con - . flict, The last to say, 'tis our! Who gal - land fall - owers of the cross Are not a - fraid to die!

fre - est no - blest hearts of all Are in the "Old Sixth Corps!"
know not what it is to yield You'll find the "Old Sixth Corps!"

CHORUS.

Then, ere we part to - night, boys, We'll sing one song the more, - - With

Then, ere we part to - night, boys, We'll sing one song the more, - - With

Small notes last time

chorus swell - ing loud and clear, God bless the Old Sixth Corps!

Small notes last time

chorus swell - ing loud and clear, God bless the Old Sixth Corps!

Small notes last time

4. Our truest, bravest heart is gone, And we remember well

5. Then our old sword will we pass, Till we see you in old, And bit - ter and glibly at that day When no - ble Sledge-wick fell; But proudly waves the "Stripes and Stars" On old - ly South - ern Hill Well there is still an - ti - er left To lead us to the fight, And struggle till our flag is left And here - red as in - tern; And with a heart, y - here stands three Well cheer our gal - ant Weigh men in the new times shall say, "And here are old Sixth Corps!"